

I am reponsing for the KLOVE radio station that offers the cities and communities the message of the Lord. Times and things are bad enough and to disband this station would be a major mistake. It is a haven for most people to listen to it and get re-spirited. I am a supporter of the station and would be a dis-service to many communities around the world.